I often remember emails I need to respond to, I resent how much energy this consumes. And yes, I know the mascot is technically an ibis and the nickname a Hurricane, but you try to make your mascot a giant wind storm and see how that works out in your gym, OK. There is a perpetual tug between conspiracy theorists and actual conspiracies, between things that are genuinely not believable and truths that are so outlandish they can be hard, at first, to believe.
